Stalking Laws

Stalking

Under California law, stalking is defined as repeatedly following someone or engaging in a course of conduct that seriously alarms a person, and threatening to hurt them or a member of their immediate family or household.

The crime of cyberstalking involves annoying or harassing someone with repeated calls or electronic communications that are obscene or threatening.

It is also a crime to use an electronic device to distribute personal information about, or digital images of, someone with the intent to harass or harm that person.
